Reasons for the collection of personal data

From time to time, it is necessary for clients to supply Investing Crypto or its subsidiary companies ("Investing Crypto") with data in connection with the opening or continuation of accounts and the establishment or continuation of margin facilities or provision of stock broking services

Failure to supply such data may result in Investing Crypto being unable to open or continue accounts or establish or continue margin facilities or provide stock broking services.

It is also the case that data are collected from clients in the ordinary course of the continuation of servicing the relationship, for example, when clients withdraw cheques or physical share certificate.

Purposes

The purposes for which data relating to a client may be used are as follows:-

- the daily operation of the services and margin facilities provided to clients;
- conducting credit checks;
- assisting other financial institutions to conduct credit checks and collect debts;
- ensuring ongoing credit worthiness of clients;
- marketing financial services or related products; and
- meeting the requirements to make disclosure under the requirements of any law or regulation binding on Investing Crypto.

Transfer of personal data

Data held by Investing Crypto relating to a client will be kept confidential but Investing Crypto may provide such information to the following parties for the purposes set out in above paragraph:-

- any agent, or third party service provider who provides securities clearing or other services to Investing Crypto in connection with the operation of its business;
- any other person under a duty of confidentiality to Investing Crypto including a group company of Investing Crypto which has undertaken to keep such information confidential;
- credit reference agencies, and, in the event of default, to debt collection agencies; and

- any person to whom Investing Crypto is under an obligation to make disclosure under the requirements of any law or regulation binding on Investing Crypto.

Access and correction of personal data

Under and in accordance with the terms of the Ordinance any individual has the right:- –

- to check whether Investing Crypto holds data about him and of access to such data;
- to require Investing Crypto to correct any data relating to him which is inaccurate; –
- to ascertain Investing Crypto's policies and practices in relation to data and to be informed of the kind of personal data held by Investing Crypto; –
- in relation to client credit, to request to be informed which items of data are routinely disclosed to credit reference agencies or debt collection agencies, and be provided with further information to enable the making of an access and correction request to the relevant credit reference agency or debt collection agency.
